Annie Bidwell's Diary, January 1- June 11, 1901

The notebook in which Annie K. Bidwell kept a diary from Jan. 1-June 11, 1901 was received by the Meriam Library's Special Collections in September 2004.

It had been found in 1923 by one of the first group of Chico Normal School girls to be assigned to the dormitory formed by Chico Normal School from the Mansion, called Bidwell Hall. She (Frances Fuller) kept it as a souvenir and it was returned to Chico after her death by her sister who resides in Oregon. This was in September, 2004.

Another such book for the remainder of 1901 may hopefully still be found and returned.

Annie was in Washington, D.C. when the year began, visiting Sallie and Tom Alexander.

At church today was read Psalm CIV, that wonderful Psalm telling of God's power, & care of birds, beast and man, and the great world! A very hallelujah to the great God & sang for the first time this hymn.

Since they Father's arm sustains thee
Peaceful be.
Know his love in full completeness
Fills the measure of thy weakness
If he wound thy spirit sore, I
Trust Him more.

Without murmur, uncomplaining
In His hand
Lay whatever things thou canst not Understand.
Though the world in folly spurneth

From Thy faith in pity turneth
Peace, my inmost soul shall fill
Lying still.

Fearest sometimes that Thy Father has forgot?
When the clouds around you gather
Doubt Him not!
Always hath the daylight broken
Always hath he comfort spoken -
Better hath He been for years,
Than thy fears.

To His own thy Savior giveth
Daily strength.
To each troubled soul that liveth
Peace at length.
Weakest lambs have largest sharing
Of this tender Shepherd's caring
Ask Him not then, when or how,
Only how.

882. Lead Kindly Light: Amid the encircling gloom. Lead thou me on.

The night is dark, and I am far from home. Lead thou me on.

Keep thou my feet : I do not ask to see the distant scene. One step enough for me.

I was not ever thus, nor prayed that thou shouldst lead me on; I loved to chose & see my path.

But now, lead Thou me on: I knew the garish day & spite of fears Pride ruled my will. Remember not past years.

So long thy power has blessed me, Sure it still will lead me on o'er moor & fen, o'er crag & torrent till the night is gone: And with the morn those angel faces smile which I have loved long since, & lost awhile:

Friday, Jan. 25, 1901

Copy from the original. Which was written by a friend of Mamma's on the discovery of a gray hair in Mamma's hair at 16 years of age:

Sage Monitor! What dost thou here?
My temples why has thou invaded?
I knew not that my leaf was sear.
For summer near my brow has shaded.
I pluck thee from my startled brow.
But ask what may thy errand be?
Art come to say my sands are low
Nor time will turn her glass for me?

Who art thou "of his pioneers?"
The tyrant needs no aid of thine.
For his swift feet are bathed in tears
That round his path with sorrows twine.
Oh traitor, wouldst thou steal the bloom
That glows upon my youthful cheek,
Make all that's brilliant naught but gloom,
And bid me ne'er for pleasure seek?

Come now to tell me life is pain,
And joy a caper on the mountain?
And hope a plant that leaves the plain to die by summer's favorite fountain?
Away! I will not listen to the tale
Life seems to me is opening still
And pleasure's voice, not sorrow's wail

Conducts me up youth's joyful hill.

Away! nor dare to come again!
Where youth & hope together sweet.
Go seek a home where age & pain
Bid every ill thy visit greet.
But with my locks the rose shall twine
Emblem sweet of love and beauty.
And from the hues more bright than thine
I'll learn to trace my every duty.

Written by a schoolmate of Mamma's, often recited by Mamma, even to within a few weeks of her going from us. A.K.B.

Lord, I cannot let Thee go -

Till a blessing Thou bestow:

Do not turn away tThy face

Mine's an urgent pressing case.

Once a sinner near despair

Sought Thy mercy - sent in prayer:

Mercy hear and set her free

Lord! That mercy came to me.

Many days have passed since then

Many changes I have seen;

Yet have been upheld till now;

Who would old me up but Thou?

Thou has helped in every need -

This emboldens me to plead;

After so much mercy past

Canst thou let me sink at last?

No - I must maintain my hold:

Till Thy goodness makes me bold;

I can no denial take,

Since I plead for Jesus' sake. Gen. 32:26

X May, '91 we have to come again,
where guests & help together meet,
to start a new sphere of strain
and every old try must prove just what our work the new shall turn unfathomable proof of, we shall be out first from the house more bright than
I'll ~~have~~ learn to face my every day.

Tuesday, June 11, 1901.

Places: To Col. Royce's. Got him to go with me to Mr. Gustin's to choose frames for portraits of Beloved, which arrived today from Washington D.C. - painted by Alice Reading, daughter of P. B. Reading, of Cal. dear friend of Beloved in early Cal. days - think they were friends from 1844 until Major Reading's death in 1867 or 8.

Admirable likenesses these 2 are, but "No 1." the best - was painted under my direction.

Paid $12.50 to Waterland for Armory Hall and piano, for Mrs. Brown's Temperance Union services. Sent receipt to Mrs. Earl. Called for Mrs & Miss White to drive (Mrs White went) drove under the Linden trees near mansion to inhale wonderful perfume & to see their beauty. Then to Indian Village to buy baskets for Dr. Benjamin & self. Got one at $10, one at $6. (One at $8 is being made for me - burden basket).

Continued

Got a platter used for winnowing wheat, for $3.

Called: Mrs. Sablman - about 4th of July Temperance Celebration. Cal. Royce to dinner.

Sent Mrs. White peaches, apricots, raspberries, strawberries, Filio-type & silos - and gave her two fine oranges of those just opened on the wonderful Occidental grove.

Walked about grounds at sunset. Brilliant sunset. Watched birds in A. M. & P. M. from balcony. Saw the mockingbird. Some pretty one I did not know. Also a hawk feeding on lawn.

Letter from Alice Reading, Sister.

Weather: 38 at 6.30 this A. M. and very cool all day. Glorious sunset. A. P. threatened rain this P. M.
